HICKS' AUGUST FORECAST.

A regular storm period covers the first five days of the month, centering on the 2nd. The moon is on celestial equator on the 2d and first quarter on the 5th. During the 3d, 4th and 5th storm conditions will pass across country to the Atlantic, breaking into severe wind and thunder storms in many localities. About the 4th change to cooler and clearing will follow the storms touching most parts of the country eastward by about the 7th.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 8th and 9th, when a reaction to storm conditions will make itself felt in falling barometer, rising temperature cloudiness and possible rains. Under the Venus influence threatening weather will most likely be prolonged over the 10th and 11th, merging into the storm period following. Full moon falls on the 11th, promising to increase lightning probabilities on or within several days of the 11th.

A regular storm period begins on the 12th, extending to the 16th, central on the 14th. The storm period will culminate on and touching the 14th, 15th and 16th. Between the 16th and 19th from west to east-southeast an unseasonably cool wave should be expected.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 19th, 20th and 21st. Moon is at quadrature, of last quarter, on the 18th. Severe summer blustering will be natural about the 19th to 21st with Venus hailstorms probable at this and other August periods. With the moon at extreme north declination on the 22nd the great summer heat may be prolonged to the next storm period.

A regular storm period covers the 24th to 27th, having new moon on the 26th. Either wide area of low barometer or dangerous equinoctial storms will appear in the south coast regions or a great crisis of summer heat and hurtful drouth will prevail in most parts of the central and northern states. If equatorial storms dominate the south, which is likely, great atmospheric tides will flow from the north, bringing very cool weather and possible frost to many sections northward, which period will culminate on or within two days of the 26th and lightning probabilities lie within and next to the same dates. The month goes out in the midst of a reactionary period. Thunder storms and gales will occur on the 30th and 31st.

Diarrhoea Cured.

"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle, of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Richard Gibson.

A VETERAN'S SAD DEATH.

Charles H. Way, a Union veteran who had lived for a number of years at Lake Shore, near Annapolis, Md., died last night in the warden's apartments attached to the county jail. He had been suffering with Bright's disease and other ailments, and on Tuesday night was taken to Annapolis, and an effort made to induce the management of the Annapolis Emergency Hospital to receive him. They would not do this, as they have no facilities for the handling of chronic cases.

As there was no other place to take him, he was received in the warden's apartment of the jail and given every attention by Night Watchman George L. Woodward and others connected with the jail. The dead man belonged to a New York volunteer regiment during the civil war, and was about 67 years of age.

Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, peasant little pills that are easy to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

NEEDLE PIERCED HEART.

Violeta Marie Bowen, the 16-year-old daughter of Jos. L. Bowen, of Gerlaw, Ill., died yesterday following an illness of only five minutes. A post-mortem examination developed that the heart had been pierced by a minute sharp instrument, which physicians believe followed the course of the arteries until the heart was reached.

The case is one of the most peculiar that has ever come to the attention of local physicians. A post-mortem examination developed that a minute sharp instrument resembling the point of a needle had entered her heart through the arteries. Frequently during the last few months Miss Bowen complained of piercing sensations—first in her hand, then in her arm, next in the shoulder and finally in the chest. It is believed that the point of a needle entered her hand and traveled all the way to the heart.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is especially good for piles. Recommended and sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

THE LOSS OF MILK through improper feed is enormous. You will be surprised how much more milk your cows will give if you will furnish them a ration especially prepared for milk production. Just for curiosity sake go to your dealer and get a couple sacks of

BADGER DAIRY FEED

—the molasses feed that is surprising even the old time dairy feeders, and try it on one of your cows. This feed will build up a cow's physical powers, furnish her lacteal organs with milk making nutrition to such a degree that her flow will increase 20 per cent. It is simply because it is composed of the best known grains combined with pure molasses making a succulent feed that cows like and produce big results on.

Report of Purity.

At the Havenner Baking Co.'s place, in C street, between Four-and-a-half and Sixth streets, Washington, cleanliness abounded. The bakers were dressed in snow-white suits, and the floors were scrubbed to whiteness. The bins and tables also were immaculate. At the place distilled water is used, and the milk, cream and eggs are brought in fresh from the country every day. The best flour is used in all bakings.—[Washington Herald, July 25, 1908.

SATURDAY EVENING, AUG. 1, 1908.

THE railroads complain of the poor quality of steel put into rails sold them by the steel trust. Defective rails are declared to be the main cause of the occurrence of frequent disasters in the United States from which other countries are comparatively free. The users of tinplates make like complaint of the inferior quality of the home make as compared with imported tin. The practical monopoly of the home market enjoyed by the trust has been abused to the disadvantage of consumers. There is the same tendency in the manufacture of silks. The American mills are putting large quantities of poor goods on the market. Heavily protected against outside competition and further protected by combinations in restraint of trade against home competition, the great monopolies not only add the tariff duty to the price of their wares, but obtain a further profit by a dishonest cheapening of the quality of their products. All this legalized shoddy robbery says the Philadelphia Record, is done under the guise of political benevolence to help infant industries and to insure high wages for labor. What a farce and fraud is our lauded protective system in the actual working!

HAVING within the past few years lost almost $10,000,000 through stealings of employes, and finding public confidence in national banks a little shaken, Pittsburg bankers have framed a measure to be presented to Congress to better insure the depositors of national banks the safety of their deposits. Congressman James F. Burke will be asked to present it. The idea is that stockholders of all national banks of the country be assessed on their dividends, this money to be held by the U. S. Treasury as a reserve fund to pay off depositors the moment a bank's doors are closed. All depositors would receive checks on the United States Treasury reserve for the full amount of their claims. This would be a very comforting assurance to depositors.

ONE OF the funniest things read since the nomination of the presidential candidates is the following paragraph sent out from republican sources in Indianapolis:

The first effect of the alignment of interests growing out of the struggle is seen in the equipment of the democrats with a large campaign fund. The democrats have ample headquarters here, where in past years they have been decidedly hard up.

Why, for the republicans, with all their resources, to show concern over the democratic campaign fund is enough to make a cow laugh.

AT a dinner given to the delegates to the Universal Peace Congress in London, yesterday Prime Minister Asquith expressed the view that the youngest person present would not live to see universal disarmament. And he might have added that the child is yet unborn who will live to see any such occurrence.

THIRTEEN days from the commission of a murder to the sentencing of the murderer to death, is the latest record of New Jersey justice. It is to be commended for approval and envy to the consideration of those who justly complain of the law's delays.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Aug. 1.

Rear Admiral Cowles, brother-in-law of President Roosevelt, and chief of the Bureau of Equipment, was placed on the retired list today.

A white man named Charles H. Wilson, today applied at the City Hall for a license to marry Lillie B. Comfort, colored. Both are residents of Washington, and are to be married by a colored minister in charge of a church here. The license was granted.

Advices from Panama states that "the campaign for provincial and municipal offices closed yesterday, election today. The campaign has been active and vigorous but good feeling prevails."

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, has entered a claim for damages of $10,000,000 against the Spanish government for derogatory remarks made against it by the Spanish Secretary of State, who got the Mutual life and the Mutual reserve companies confused.

The coast storm has turned seaward, and is apparently central this morning a short distance east of the Virginia capes with a north northeast tendency. The high winds have not extended north of the Virginia coast, but showery conditions were general throughout the Atlantic states.

Attorney General Bonaparte today decided that under the federal banking laws it is illegal for national banks in Oklahoma to contribute to the depositors' guarantee fund provided for in the new banking law of that state. The opinion of the attorney general which was forwarded from his summer ohme at Lenox, Mass., was rendered in response to a query from Secretary Cortelyou. It seems that a number of national banks in the new state had expressed a desire to contribute to the guarantee fund and avail themselves and their depositors of its benefits.

Because his health was failing, Ellsworth Nutt, a watchman on the steel pier at Atlantic City, took unusual means to end his life yesterday. Climbing the railing at the ocean end of the pier, he knotted the halyards of a flagpole, and tying a noose about his neck, jumped wide of the pier. His neck was broken.

Bold Assault.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 1.—Word has been received here that William Douglas, white, aged 23 who is charged with having assaulted Helen Dungan, 13, at the Dungan summer home north of Indianapolis, has been surrounded in the woods on White river, near here, and a squad of detectives has gone to the scene in automobiles.

The man is hemmed in by a posse of farmers headed by the father of the girl.

The assault on the Dungan child was bold as the assailant saw the child's mother not a hundred yards away when he grabbed the child and dragged her into the woods. The mother screamed to farmers who were working in a field a quarter of a mile away and they ran to where the child was last seen. She was found but the assailant had escaped. Every farm house in the surrounding country was notified and a posse of one hundred was organized. Fifty men wording on a bridge over White river north of Broad Ripple joined in the search today. The little girl is in a serious condition at the country home.

Sensational Raid.

Paris, Aug. 1.—By a sensational raid today on the headquarters of the General Labor Federation, the police arrested three leaders of the federation who are charged with responsibility for the laborers' strike that now threatens Paris. The three arrested are Pouget, editor of the Voix Du Peuple, a revolutionary paper and organ of the federation; Griffuelhes, secretary of the federation, and Marie, one of the most prominent members.

Captain Lepine led a large force of gendarmes and firemen who surrounded the federation building. Pouget and Griffuelhes were found hidden in a closet, and Marie crouching in a dark corner of the cellar. A great uproar arose as the police entered. A number of strikers who were injured in the fatal fight at Vigenux were being cared for in the building. The arrest of the three ringleaders it is believed will put a check to the strike outbreak. Others were arrested on the order of the government today.

Abdul Aziz Marching.

Tangier, Aug. 1.—Sultan Abdul Aziz is marching on Marrakesh with an army of 15,000. Though his force is ill-organized, undisciplined and practically without artillery, it is believed that Marrakesh, lacking fortifications, will fall. The point is the most important to the pretender, Mulai Hafid, in southern Morocco and its fall will be a heavy blow to his influence. Abdul Aziz's staff of European advisers includes besides a small party of French officers, Kaid MacLean's chief of staff, Col. Bolding, and Dr. Verdon, his majesty's private physician.

FIERCE NORTHEAST WINDS.

Judging from reports from captains of the large sea-going tugs which occasionally come up the river there must have been heavy northeast gales on the ocean. The damage caused by high tides was considerable. This morning the tug William H. Yerkes with two large four-masted schooners in tow loaded with ice passed up the river to Washington, and the tug Camella with one large vessel in tow followed shortly afterward. The captain of the latter tug says the wind was so high in the lower Potomac that he had to leave several large vessels behind. The Mutual Ice Company has another cargo of ice on its way here and it is expected that this will be the last ice laden schooner to come to this port this season—which has been an exceptionally busy one. The vessel is the Sullivan Sarwyn.

Havoc by Storm.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 1.—Because all the telegraph and telephone wires have been down through eastern North Carolina for three days news of the destruction to life and property caused by the storms and floods of the last four days could not be learned until today. Special dispatches received from Kinston, Washington, Beaufort and Wrightsville say a number of lives were lost. Bridges and trestles and tracks are washed away.

In the town of Kinston the main street is a foot under water. All the summer resorts at Wrightsville, which was practically blown away have been deserted and the hotels closed.

THREE DEATHS IN FAMILY IN ONE DAY.

A series of fatalities in one family happened at Coffeyville, Kan., Wednesday, Miss Hattie Ross, whose home was in the country near there, died in the forenoon. Word was at once sent to her two sisters, living several miles distant. Both started for the family home. One of her sisters took her baby with her, and it died in its mother's arms on the drive to the parental home. The other sister left her young child at her home with other relatives, and when she returned that night she found the child dead. Both children were less than one year old. The sister who died was twenty.

Chronic Diarrhoea Relieved.

Mr. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes, "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Butherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no aliment except chronic diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

John Finney, colored, was convicted yesterday at Rocky Mount, of criminal assault upon a little white girl, and was sentenced to be electrocuted in the penitentiary at Richmond, October 30. Finney will be the first man in Virginia to die in the electric chair. The jury was out five minutes.

The case of Charles M. Minnis, colored, postmaster at Ocaupacis, Essex county, charged with embezzlement of $214 postoffice funds, was called before Commissioner Butzner at Fredericksburg yesterday evening. His counsel waived a hearing and Minnis was held for the United States grand jury.

The contractor on the Plains-Middleburg road have gotten down to work in earnest. The grading has been going on for some time. The force consists of twenty convicts, twenty-six mules, and prehaps a dozen teamsters. The rock crushers, rollers and sprinklers are in place. The road will be fourteen feet wide from The Plains to Halfway and ten feet wide from Halfway to Middleburg.

Robert Emmett Connelly, aged 20, exasperated at the refusal of Miss Kate Beelman to marry him, approached the girl in a local dry goods store in Richmond yesterday, where she was employed, and fired three shots at her, two of the bullets imbedding themselves in the counter in front of the girl. The third struck the girl in the side, flattening itself against a steel in her corset. The store was crowded at the time. Shoppers fled precipitately through doors and windows, many employes taking refuge behind the counters. Several women fainted and others went into hysterics. The doors of the establishment remained closed for several hours until quiet was restored. Miss Beelman and young Connelly had been sweethearts for several months, but the girl recently broke her engagement to mary him because he was out of employment.

If the republican campaign committee of Ohio has decided to invite Senator Jos. B. Foraker to attend the Youngstown campaign opening as a "silent guest" the Senator doesn't know it. Thus far he has not been invited.

Two thousand troops have just sailed from Marseilles for service against the native rebels on the Hindo-Chinese frontier. Anti-government forces in the Chamber of Deputies have opposed the campaign vigorously.

The eighty American athletes who sailed to England a few weeks ago and put the athletic teams of every other nation out of the running will be given a reception August 23 in New York. President Roosevelt, William J. Bryan, Governor Hughes and others are expected to be present.

In the arrest of three men and the announcement that they expect to take three more persons in custody, the Brooklyn police believe they have broken up the gang who have robbed the Adams Express Company of trunks in which were goods valued at $100,000. The robberies have been going on for some months.

Stanley Ketchell is still middle weight champion. In one of the shortest and perhaps the fiercest battle for the title in years, at San Francisco the Montana lad knocked out Hugo Kelly, of Chicago in the third round last night. After his victory over Kelley, Ketchell was matched to meet Bill Papke, the Illinois thunderbolt, in a 25 round contest for the championship at Los Angeles on September 7th.

With the news that President Truesdale of the Lackawanna railroad has refused to meet the grievance committee of the Switchmen's Union regarding the unjust dismissal of men on the Buffalo division, it is now believed that a strike is inevitable. Mr. Truesdale declared today that the trouble between his road and its switchmen was not a matter for interference by President Roosevelt. He expressed the belief that in case the switchmen appealed to the president the latter would ignore them.

Sitting at an open window in the second story of his house, in Washington and firing a number of shots at random from a 38-calliber revolver, Virgil Spinkston last night stirred up the neighborhood. RELEASED ON BAIL.

That F. E. Bliss, jr., was the "hypnotized" victim instead of Mrs. Marthinson, as claimed by Marthinson, Cole, and White, and that he received the most terrific beating possible without the breaking of bones, is the opinion of an intimate acquaintance of Bliss, who was decoyed to 1317 Kenyon street, Washington, beaten and tarred on Wednesday night.

The principals in the case refuse to make any statement. It is claimed by friends of Bliss that he believed Mrs. Marthinson to be unmarried, and that he expected to make her his wife. He is not a hypnotist.

When the case was called in the Police Court yesterday morning, the men charged with assault and battery, Charles Marthinson, Henry Cole, and James L. White, pleaded not guilty, and demanded a jury trial. They were bound over in the sum of $1,000.

Bliss has informed the police that he had fallen deeply in love with Mrs. Marthinson; that he had a reason to believe he would marry her; that when the case comes to trial he will make some disclosures that will startle the city and that the reason for not making those disclosures at this time is that he wants to protect some prominent people.

Mr. Bryan to Answer.

New York, Aug. 1.—The real strength of the National Manufacturers Association and incidentally of its president, J. C. VanCleave is to be tested by the democratic party. Norman E. Mack, chairman of the democratic national committee has received word from Lincoln that Mr. Bryan has decided to reply publicly to the circulars which the national association has sent throughout the country over VanCleave signature calling on all members and their friends to "take the tide off Bryan at the coming election and nail it to the fence for all time."

The first guns of the battle are to be fired in an open letter from Bryan to Van Cleave. In it it is understood that the democratic chieftain will denounce the "attempt of Van Cleave to make the coming campaign a struggle between capital and labor."

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 1.—The report coming here from New York that Bryan will reply publicly to the attacks upon him by President Van Cleave of the National Manufacturers Association are confirmed by the candidate. He announces that his reply to Van Cleave will be made public in the issue of the Commoner which will be out next Friday but he positively declined to intimate in advance what he will say.

Mr. Bryan has completed his letter of acceptance and the notes are now being transcribed by his secretary. The document is understood to be a comprehensive dissection and comparison of the two party platforms and rumor has it that Bryan goes outside the platform adopted at Denver to answer some of the questions propounded to him by Taft in the latter's speech at Cincinnati Tuesday.

Four Lynched.

Russellville, Ky., Aug. 1.—The bodies of four negroes swung from the limbs of the "old hanging tree" when the sun rose this morning. They had been taken from the Logan county jail during the night and lynched by a mob of fifty men. The victims are: Virgil Jones, Tom Jones, Robert Jones and Joe Riley. The cause of the lynching was the murder of James Cunningham, a white farmer, living near Allensville, Ky., in Todd county, by Rufus Browder, colored, a week ago. Browder ambushed Cunningham because he had been discharged. Browder is in jail in Louisville for safe keeping. The negroes who were lynched belonged to a lodge which had passed resolutions endorsing the murder of Cunningham. For this the four were arrested on charges of conspiracy. Last night a mob quietly entered Russellville, went to the home of Jailer Butt, covered him with guns, secured the prisoners and hanged them so quickly that the town did not know of it until this morning. Not a shot was fired. Two of the negroes were in night clothes. Pinned to one was the following note: "Let this be a warning to you niggers to let white people alone or you will go the same way. You lodgers had better shut up or quit."

Clara Awakens.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 1.—Clara Konter the 18 years old girl who mysteriously disappeared from her Shousetown home Monday and then magically reappeared 24 hours later, following an all night search, today, manifests no returning signs of consciousness. She has remained in a stupor ever since she was found apparently lifeless in her own bed early Tuesday.

Unable to recognize parents or friends Clara Konter suddenly awakened from a comatose state shortly before noon today and dressed herself, started to leave the house. Her progress was barred by a neighbor.

After calling for a drink of water, the girl started for a window. She was stopped by her father.

"Let me pass, mister," she said.

Other members of the family tried to get her to converse with them but all attempts were fruitless.

Once she asked her mother the time and said she was going to Pittsburg.

When asked to tell of Monday night's experience the girl shuddered and buried her face in her hands.

Gov. Hughes.

New York, Aug. 1.—Even though he does not lift a finger in his own defense or make the slightest aggressive move, Governor Hughes promises to give the New York State republican bosses the hardest fight on record before he is put out of the gubernatorial race. Despite denials from President Roosevelt, Candidate Taft and Chairman Hitchcock that they are to take any hand in the New York State fight or that they are "for" the Hughes candidacy, it is a certainty to date that they are not "agin" the governor and without any help from these three heavy weights the Hughes boom seems to be traveling along quite successfully.

I used to be troubled greatly with dandruff, of which I am now quite cured." Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide.

MONEY FOR ROADS.

A quarter of a million dollars will be available for the improvement of the state highways next year.

The state highway commissioner will have the distribution of this fund, and each county in the State will have its equal share.

One feature of the law is that the counties which are employing convict forces are not to participate in the distribution. Another thing is that the counties which apply for financial aid for the roads must raise and expend an amount equal to that obtained from the state.

The money is to be used for improving the highways of the state, but in counties which receive $2,500 or less the money can be used for the building of bridges and the like.

When a county declines to make application for this money, it will revert to the fund and will be used for making a second distribution of the same to the counties which may ask for more than the allotment made under the provisions of the bill. A county can ask for and receive less than than the amount apportioned.

Following is the amount apportioned to the counties in this state and which will be available in the year 1909 for good road work. Alexandria, 1,773; Clarke, 1 543 50; Culpeper 2 250; Fairfax, 3 780; Fauquier, 5,332 50; Frederick, 2,445 75; King George, 630; Loudoun, 6,390; Orange, 2,047.50; Page, 1,730,25; Prince William, 2,070; Rappahannock, 1,147.50; Stafford, 904 50; Warren, 1,174 50; Westmoreland, 1,179.

THE PERJURY CASE.

The unusual solemnity of the police court was broken this morning by the appearance of a novel case—that of perjury, preferred against young Charlie Davis, who, it is claimed, falsified to the age of Miss Sarah Jane Norris, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Fenton, to the clerk of the Corporation Court, in his desire to obtain a marriage certificate. After the usual routine of the court this morning Justice Caton cleared the room and entered into the hearing of the case. It appears that on Tuesday last Charlie Davis sent a young man named Mudd to the clerk's office to secure a marriage license for him to marry Miss Norris. The clerk refused to issue such certificate without Davis being present Later Davis appeared and, according to the clerk's statement, swore the young woman in the case was 21 years of age. He secured a marriage license and on Tuesday, as mentioned in yesterday's Gazette, they were married at the Trinity personage by Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale. The young woman was determined to marry Davis, as the evidence tended to prove, as she wrote on a note addressed to the clerk "Sarah Jane Norris, aged 21," and in a question as to why she did it, she said: "I wanted him, and unless I swore I was 21 I could not get him." The mother of the girl was just as anxious for her not to marry him and seemed bent on punishing the young man for his misrepresentation of the age of her daughter. Mr. Howard W. Smith appeared to prosecute the case and Mr. R. D. Brumback had as his client young Davis. Both lawyers spoke briefly, but pointedly, about the matter, each agreeing that it was an unfortunate case. The chief contention of Lawyer Brumback, who represented the defendant, was that there was no oath administered, as both Davis and the young man named Mudd were positive that the clerk had not administered an oath, although Mr. Greenaway was just as positive he did. Justice Caton, in summing up the evidence, said he was clearly of the opinion that the young man was guilty as charged, but, he said, it was one of the unfortunate cases which he was compelled to decide and he would impose the lightest penalty under the law—$10 fine and 30 days in jail. Mr. Brumback noted an appeal and young Davis was released under $500 bond, Mrs. Fannie Cook becoming security for his appearance at the next term of court. The mother and aunt left the court room apparently satisfied with the verdict, but the girl, who seemed bent on standing by her husband, reluctantly left the court. Thus ended the first inning in another love affair.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Lucas, arrested by Chief Goods charged with stealing barrels out of the market, was fined $5.

John L. Sullivan and N. H. Vermillion, arrested by Officer Young charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, forfeited their collateral.

Henry Jennings, arrested by Lieutenant Bettis and Officer Ferguson charged with felonious assault, was turned over to Officer Tansill from Fredericksburg.

Joseph Carter, colored, arrested by Officer Beach charged with felonious assault on Thomas Neal, was turned over to the Washington authorities.

Irene Bushrod, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with contempt of court, was fined $2 50.

John Jackson, colored, was arrested today by Officer Roberts for stealing a bridle from the stable of The Charles King & Son Co.

BREAKING CAMP.

At Chattanooga, Ga., yesterday 4,000 troops passed in review before Brig. Gen. Potts, commander of Camp Taft, and Brig. Gen C. C. Vaughn, of the Virginia national guard.

The Seventieth and Seventy-first regiments of the Virginia national guard, commanded by Col. Cornman, passed first, followed by the Second South Carolina. Next in line came the Seventy-second Virginia, commanded by Col. Robert F. Leedy. Following these were ten companies of the Twelfth cavalry, Col. George Dodd commanding. Then came the artillery, which passed the reviewing stand at a wild gallop. The Virginia troops will leave for home today.

A message received in this city this afternoon stated that Company G, Seventieth Virginia Regiment, of this city, had arrived in Lynchburg from Chickamanga Park, at 3 o'clock, and would reach Alexandria between 8 and 9 o'clock tonight.

RACES AUGUST 11.

The races to take place on the Potomac river on August 11 promise to bring forth excellent results as to speed. The races will be conducted under rules adopted by the Corinthian Boat Club, the Capital City Boat Club and the Potomac Boat Club of Washington. As to the speed boats the Mae, Tryto, and Kindo will be entered from this city and one or two from Washington. As to the other boats, the Augusta, owned by Admiral August Calmes, and the yacht owned by Mr. Charles Bell will be entered in the keel-boat class against several from Washington, all handicaps being allowed. The race will be of great interest to the boat owners of this city and vicinity.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN.

Officer Young arrested two white men on south Royal street yesterday afternoon for drunkeness. One of the men gave his name as John L. Sullivan, and with the pomposity of the once renowned prize fighter who bears that name he said he could clean up Alexandria, and perhaps would have done so had it not been for the appearance of Officer Young, who quietly landed him behind the bars. He later left $5 collateral and when his case was called this morning it was found he had shaken the dust of the city from his feet.

THE ARMORY DISPUTE.

S. G. Brent, of Alexandria, one of the lawyers engaged in the dispute over the possession of the armory in that city, called to see the adjutant general Thursday with reference to the matter. The adjutant-general gave Mr. Brent free access to all the records and papers in the military pertaining to the Alexandria companies, but he took no part in the difficulty as between the two claimants. The matter will get into the courts at an early date and will be settled.

The trouble grows out of the disbanding of a company at Alexandria and the formation of another company. The old company, it is understood, declines to yield the armory to the new command. —[Richmond News Leader.

THE NEW BONDS.

Such of the new four per cent bonds as were requested to be registered in the names of owners of the old issue, have all been prepared and the auditor is ready to make exchanges. The only thing necessary to complete the exchange is the surrender of the old and the seal of the corporation affixed to the new bonds, which is not done until the last. A circular letter is issued by the auditor in which he says:

"You are respectfully notified that the new bonds bearing four per cent. interest have been received and prepared for delivery to you in the amount named in your acceptance for exchange. You can forward your bonds of 1879 to the city treasurer, or either of the banks of the city, or you can, if you so desire, and it best suits your convenience, bring your bonds to this office. Of course it will be assumed (unless otherwise advised) that you desire us to deliver the new bonds to the person who surrenders the old ones. The banks of the city have rendered much assistance to this office in the success attending the refunding; services much appreciated. The city will pay cost of forwarding to you the new bonds, by registered mail or express, as you prefer, as promised in our circular letter."

The bonds are handsomely engraved and bear the vignette of General Robert E. Lee. The thousand dollar bonds are bronze colored, the 500s are blue and the 100s buff.

A Bibulous Lord Mayor.

Any one with a love of queer names should study the names of past lord mayors of London. Besides one or two that are merely uncommon and did not belong to men of any distinction, such as Sir Richard Spas, mayor in 1482, there are some that deserve notice also for the sake of those who bore them. There was Sir John Brugges in 1520, whose ancestor fought at Agincourt, when, curiously enough, the name had the more modern form of Brydges. There was Alderman Micajah Perry in 1730, who laid the first stone of the Mansion House, and Sir Benjamin Hamet, who was fined £1,000 in 1797 for refusing to act as mayor—positively a cheap way of getting out of it.

The most appropriately named lord mayor seems, however, to have been the cheerful Sir Robert Viner, who entertained Charles II. and drank the king's health so often as to become unduly merry. The king tactfully sought to retire, but Viner plucked him by the sleeve and vowed he should "stay and take the other bottle!" Charles II., never at a loss, complied, murmuring, "He that is drunk is as great as a king."—St. James' Gazette.

Awed by the Beau.

When Beau Brummel, the celebrated dandy, was, in consequence of his fallen fortunes, residing at Calais, he had occasion to visit Paris. Through the kindness of the consul at the former place he was enabled to accompany a king's messenger to the capital and thus travel free of expense. When the messenger returned, the consul was curious to know how he and his aristocratic companion had fraternized upon the road. "What kind of a traveling companion did you find Mr. Brummel?" asked he. "Oh, a very pleasant one, indeed, sir; very pleasant," replied the messenger. "Ah! And what did he say?" "Say, sir? Nothing! He slept the whole way." "Slept the whole way! Do you call that being pleasant? Perhaps he snored!" The messenger acknowledged that Brummel did so, but immediately, as if fearful of casting an improper reflection upon so great a personage, he added, with great gravity, "Yet I can assure you, sir, Mr. Brummel snored very much like a gentleman!"—Argonaut.

The Flight of a Great Nebula.

One of the most striking spectacles revealed by telescopes is that of the great nebula in Orion. In the complexity of its glowing streams, spirals and strangely shaped masses, intercepted by yawning black gaps and sprinkled over with stars arranged in suggestive groups and lines, it has few rivals in the heavens. The impression of astonishment made by the sight of this nebula is heightened by knowledge of its enormous size. The entire solar system would appear as a tiny speck beside it. Yet this tremendous aggregation of nebulous clouds and starry swarms has been proved by the researches of the astronomers of the Lick observatory to be flying away from the earth and the sun at the rate of eleven miles in every second. But so vast is its distance that a hundred years reveal no visual effects of the great nebula's swift retreat. If it were near by it would seem to become rapidly smaller.—Chicago Record Herald.

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold of Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly C. N. Corneil, Roding, Ga., Apr., 2', 1906" Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Faithful Friend.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he know its value and is competent to speak of it. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.
